As you know, the Consumer Credit Counseling Act, § 37-7-101 et seq., requires all counselors, owners and designees to complete 12 hours of continuing professional education every two years. S.C. Code Ann. §37-7-105(A). The statute also requires the Department to establish a Continuing Professional Education Panel. S.C. Code Ann. §37-7-105(C)(2).

The CPE Panel will:

- Meet at the Department or via conference call as necessary to review any courses a provider other than the Department would like to give;
- be comprised of a representative of the Department and two credit counselors appointed for 2- year terms

We would like to form a diverse Panel compiled of individuals from the credit counseling, credit repair, and debt negotiation industries – for profit and not for profit. If you are interested, please fill out this form and return it to the following address or fax (803-734-4229):
